

Non-Discrimination Statement

Johnson Health Center (JHC) does not discriminate, exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. We do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex abiding by Federal civil rights laws.

JHC provides assistance and services for people to communicate effectively, including interpretation and written information in a requested, primary language.

If you believe that JHC has discriminated in any way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with: Judy Ladjack, 134 Elon Rd, Madison Heights, Virginia 24572, 434-929-1400 x1932 or jladjack@jhcvirginia.org. You can file a grievance in person or by mail, fax, or email.

You can file a civil rights complaint on-line with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights, at <https://ocrportal.hhs.gov/ocr/portal/lobby.jsf>
